SUBJECT: Trend-Adjusted Actual Production History (APH) - Wheat

BACKGROUND:

The Risk Management Agency (RMA) previously issued Product Management Informational Memorandum's PM-11-046 and PM-046.1, releasing procedures for Trend-Adjusted APH and clarifications to the Trend-Adjusted APH procedures. Trend-Adjusted APH was made available for the 2012 crop year for corn and soybeans. Trend-Adjusted APH is now also available for wheat in certain locations for 2013 crop year.

ACTION:

Product Management Informational Memorandum's PM-046 and PM-046.1 containing Trend-Adjusted APH procedures apply to wheat and any other crops and locations for which Trend-Adjusted APH is available. Any additional eligible crops and locations for the Trend-Adjusted APH will be published in the actuarial documents. Attached is a map and listing of counties where Trend-Adjusted APH for wheat is available for the 2013 crop year.

DISPOSAL:

December 31, 2012.
