

Title Page Instructions

This title page narrative does not address all relevant requirements of the RFA and should only be used as supplemental guidance. The title page narrative will provide easily accessible contact names and numbers along with brief titles and descriptions.

This single page can provide: (a) the name of the project; (b) the specific State(s) for which the project will be directed; (c) the organization submitting the application; (d) information needed to contact the project's leader, including name, title, phone number, and an e-mail address; (e) information to contact the administrative/financial personnel responsible for the project; and (f) a brief project summary.