

Recipient	Project	Project Description	Award Amount	Award Type	State(s)
University of Vermont	Crop Insurance and Risk Management Education in Vermont	The grantee will provide comprehensive educational program will target producers, agribusiness professionals, and agribusiness leaders with the goal of improving the understanding and awareness of risk management, the kinds of risk covered by crop insurance, the features of existing and emerging insurance products, the connection between crop insurance and other risk management decisions (marketing and financial), record keeping requirements, how to make informed insurance decisions before sales closing deadlines, and program changes.	$ 259,000.00	TS	Vermont
New Jersey Department of Agriculture	Crop Insurance Education for New Jersey Farmers	The grantee will develop and implement a comprehensive crop insurance education program that ensures New Jersey farmers are well informed so they can make the best decisions about existing and emerging crop insurance products. Risk management education, strategies and outreach to farmers will focus on all traditional, new/beginning, women, socially disadvantaged, farmers in transition of changing farming practices, and producers of products marketed as part of a local and regional food system.	$ 282,000.00	TS	New Jersey
University of New Hampshire	Crop Insurance and Risk Management Education for New Hampshire Farmers	The grantee will reach NH farmers through educational events which will address strategies and techniques for managing production, marketing, financial and human resource risks. These events will incorporate efforts to help farmers understand the kinds of risks addressed by crop insurance, features of existing and emerging crop insurance policies, use of crop insurance to manage risks, effects crop insurance coverage may have on other management decisions, and importance of making informed decisions.	$ 196,105.00	TS	New Hampshire
University of Connecticut	Crop Insurance and Risk Management Promotion, Education and Training for Connecticut Farmers and Growers	The grantee will promote the use of crop insurance to manage risk, an understanding of how using crop insurance can affect other farm risk management decisions, and sales closing date information will be emphasized in educational and training programs. Crop insurance provisions in the current Farm Bill including whole farm revenue protection will be highlighted. Project audience numbers is approximately 6,000 Connecticut farmers, growers and agribusiness advisers. Targeted groups include established farmers, beginning farmers, women, veterans, minority producers, legal immigrants, socially disadvantaged farmers, retiring farmers using transition strategies to help new farmers get started and new or established farmers converting production and marketing systems to pursue new markets.	$ 250,000.00	TS	Connecticut

Recipient	Project	Project Description	Award Amount	Award Type	State(s)
AgRAEIS	Crop Insurance and Risk Management Education for Delaware Beginning, Specialty Crop, Traditional, and Veteran Producers	The grantee will work with RMA and four partner organizations to improve Delaware producers' awareness, understanding, and utilization of Federal crop insurance programs. The training and information outreach will improve producers' awareness of available risk management strategies and tools, including Federal crop insurance programs such as RMA's WFRP Program.	$ 287,000.00	TS	Delaware
University of Massachusetts (UMass) Extension	Comprehensive Crop Insurance/Risk Management Education Program	The grantee will develop and deliver a comprehensive crop insurance and risk management education program to all Massachusetts agricultural producers. Additionally, the program will target beginning, legal immigrant, organic and socially disadvantaged producers; groups historically identified as having limited or no knowledge of Federal Crop Insurance programs.	$ 238,982.00	TS	Massachusetts
WVURC - Extension Service	Risk Management Education for West Virginia Farmers	The grantee will present 32,000 hours of "face to face teaching" to more than 8,400 farmers in towns across the state. The risk management classes offered compliment the diversity of traditional forage based and row crop agriculture, but also support the newer movement to grow food as opposed to growing commodities. New audiences include Annie's Project women, Veterans, young and beginning farmers, and those that are transitioning to the farm.	$ 242,000.00	TS	West Virginia
Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture	Crop Insurance Education Program for	The grantee will help producers better understand and utilize the many risk management options available. The planned live presentations will provide over 15,863 hours of face-to-face education for over 15,000 producers. Printed and on-line materials will be delivered to over 7 million individual contacts with producers and agricultural professionals.	$ 700,000.00	TS	Pennsylvania
University of Rhode Island	Risk Management and Crop Insurance Education for Rhode Island Growers	The grantee will host educational events on crop insurance and risk management at various locations throughout the state and provide education through e-mailings, newsletters, websites, and one-on-one meetings. Specifically, growers will learn about the Whole Farm Revenue Protection Policy.	$ 206,000.00	TS	Rhode Island
Maryland Department of Agriculture	Maryland Crop Insurance Education and Promotion Project	The grantee will assist farmers in making educated risk management decisions for their farms; promote the Whole Farm Revenue Policy; and the new Supplemental Coverage options to Maryland producers. Tools used in this project will include: agricultural newspaper articles and advertisements focusing on program changes and sales closing dates, quarterly newsletters, annual calendar, face to face presentations to farmers and to innovations to reach new audiences using testimonials and learning sites, social media, webinars, and on-line courses.	$ 369,407.00	TS	Maryland
New York State Dept. of Agriculture and Markets	Farmer Resilience & Crop Insurance: Education Opportunities in New York	The grantee will provide crop insurance information to producers in New York State. The grantee will target all producers including organic, beginning, specialty crop, small farms or ranches, those transitioning the farm from one generation to the next, and producers selling in the state's more than 400 farmers markets.	$ 586,000.00	TS	New York

Recipient	Project	Project Description	Award Amount	Award Type	State(s)
University of Maine Cooperative Extension	Crop Insurance Education for Maine	The grantee will provide crop insurance education to Maine farmers, which serve local and regional food system. Specifically, crop insurance education to Maine farmers at commodity meetings and workshops, through newsletters, website, and on existing, commodity-based web pages.	$ 184,895.00	TS	Maine
University of Wyoming	Risk Management Education Addressing Specialty and Organic Crop/Livestock Operations; Economic Analysis of Multi-temporal Risk Management Strategies; Risk Scenario Planning and Analysis; and Risk Management for Beginning, Retiring/Transitioning, and Other Farmers/Ranchers and Interested Individuals in Wyoming	The grantee will work to ensure that farmers and ranchers in Wyoming are well- informed of risk management solutions so they can make the best decisions about crop insurance coverage and other risk controls.	$ 293,000.00	TS	Wyoming
University of Nevada Cooperative Extension	Nevada Risk Management Targeted States Crop and Livestock Insurance Education Project	The grantee will provide education to increase agricultural producer knowledge and encourage participation in federal crop, livestock and revenue insurance programs in Nevada, which is a StrikeForce state. This statewide project consists of programming in the following areas: American Indian crop/livestock insurance; business planning, Nevada agricultural law including organics; estate planning; climate education on vegetation/rainfall index and drought monitor; high school agricultural risk education and agriculture in the Classroom; and livestock insurance including dairy insurance.	$ 247,988.00	TS	Nevada
AgriLogic Consulting, LLC	Crop Insurance Programs for Hawaii Agricultural Producers - Setting the Stage for Long Term Sustainability	The grantee will partner with several local groups to deliver crop insurance education and related risk management strategies to producers of priority agricultural commodities in Hawaii (all counties). The target audience is Asian and Pacific Islanders, beginning, immigrant, and limited resource farmers as well as all other agricultural producers including operators of specialty, organic, and traditional farms.	$ 246,000.00	TS	Hawaii
Custom Ag Solutions	Crop Insurance Program Training and Promotion for Utah's Beginning, Livestock, Traditional, and Veteran Producers	The grantee will work with RMA and eight partner organizations to improve Utah producers' awareness, understanding, and use of Federal crop insurance programs. The training and information outreach will improve producers' awareness of available risk management strategies and tools, including Federal crop insurance programs such as RMA's PRF, LRP, and WFRP Programs.	$ 316,000.00	TS	Utah