1. Definitions.

Flood irrigation - An irrigated practice commonly used for rice production whereby the planted acreage is intentionally covered with water that is maintained at a uniform and shallow depth throughout the growing season.

Harvest - Combining or threshing rice for grain.

Planted acreage – In addition to the definition in section 1 of the Basic Provisions, land on which there is uniform placement of an adequate amount of rice seed into a prepared seedbed by one of the following methods (Acreage seeded in any other manner will not be insurable unless otherwise provided by the Special Provisions):

- (a) Drill seeding - Using a grain drill to incorporate the seed to a proper soil depth;
- (b) Broadcast seeding - Distributing seed evenly onto the surface of an un-flooded seedbed followed by either timely mechanical incorporation of the seed to a proper soil depth in the seedbed or flushing the seedbed with water; or
- (c) Broadcast seeding into a controlled flood - Distributing the rice seed onto a prepared seedbed that has been intentionally covered to a proper depth by water. The water must be free of movement and be completely contained on the acreage by properly constructed levees and gates.

Wild rice - A member of the grass family Zizania Palustris L., adapted for growing in man-made flood irrigated fields known as paddies.

2. Insured Crop.

In accordance with section 8 of the Basic Provisions, the crop insured will be all the rice in the county for which a premium rate is provided by the actuarial documents:

- (a) That is flood irrigated; and
- (b) That is not wild rice.

3. Payment Dates.

(a) Unless otherwise specified in the Special Provisions the final county revenues and final county yields will be determined prior to June 16 following the crop year.

(b) If an indemnity is due, unless otherwise specified in the Special Provisions we will issue any payment to you prior to July 16 following the crop year.

4. Program Dates.

(a) In accordance with section 3 of the Margin Protection Plan Provisions, the contract change date is the November 30 preceding the cancellation date.

(b) In accordance with section 4 of the Margin Protection Plan Provisions, the cancellation and termination dates are:
